1. PROPOSED CRITERIA FOR THE ALLOCATION OF FUNDS TO FOOD PROGRAMS IN 1997
- Commissioner, Social Services Department report dated 03 September 1996 01

That the Community Services Committee recommend Council approve the following criteria to be used in allocating funds to the eleven (11) currently Regionally funded Food Programs, in order to maximize the availability of free food to low income residents of Ottawa-Carleton:

1. A basic contribution of $15,000 towards co-ordination applicable to Food Programs serving up to 1000 people monthly, with an increment of $5,000 for each additional 500 people served;
2. Remaining funds available would be shared among Food Programs in neighbourhoods with minimal resources: 2/3 of remaining funds to Food Programs in neighbourhoods where income per private household is less than $50,000 and the balance to Food Programs in neighbourhoods where income per private household is less than $60,000;
3. Regional support not to exceed 15% of program operational value, with the exception of Food Programs in neighbourhoods with minimal resources.
