WILL REFLECT ESSENTIAL HUMAN VALUES

It should be emphasized that the essential values indicated in our Vision Statement are also values that we in Canada particularly subscribe to as Canadian Values.

The very fact that Canada considers itself to be a multi-cultural, multi-racial, multi-religious country, reflects our own commitment to Oneness of Reality, Respect and Dignity of all Human Beings, and the Intrinsic Relationship between Human being and the Cosmic and Natural Environment around us.

Canada's commitment to being a multi-cultural, multi-racial, multi-ethnic and multi-religious country does not necessarily mean that we will subscribe to fundamental beliefs of any religion, racial, or ethnic group, but we will always accommodate, those aspects of their faith that do not contradict essential universal values, that happen to be Canadian values as well.

The Humanics Sanctuary :

- It will be a place of refuge, where one can sit down and meditate on and appreciate the essential common values outlined in the vision statement and relax in a pleasant forest environment.
- It will be a reservation where animals, birds, trees and plants are protected. A special effort will be made, not only to protect the natural environment, but to enhance the environment by planting of perennial species of trees and plants, that would be well adapted to that habitat.

SOME OTHER SANCTUARIES OR SCULPTURE PARKS IN THE WORLD.

Most of the other sanctuaries or sculpture parks in the world are work of a particular sculptor. Hardly any of them are dedicated to reflect the essential human values. One exception is the Rickett's Sanctuary in Mt. Dendedenong, in Victoria, which attempts to demonstrate, that the essential value of Australian Aborigines is that "life is love". (Pictures 1 & 2 ).

Some other Sculpture Parks in the world:

1. Bruno's Art and Sculpture Garden Marysvill Victoria (Picture 3).
2. Brookgreen Gardens, Mytle Beach South Carolina (picture 4).
